

Ore House at Milagro

Owner John Beaupre and Chef Carlos Hernandez have created a must visit restaurant in the heart of Santa Fe. Upon entering Ore House at Milagro, locals and visitors alike will marvel at the welcoming and comfortable bar and lounge which feature one of Santa Fe's most extensive lists of specialty tequilas. Milagro's selection of featured cocktails is sure to satisfy your desire for the perfect margarita. As you enter the dining room, the arched wrought iron atrium, climbing bougainvilleas, and the beautifully appointed wooden tables remind one of the French Quarter in New Orleans. Dining is on two levels, with the upper overlooking the restaurant and bar below; plenty of spaces for an intimate dinner or for people-watching.
